

The move by the CBA to reduce the effectiveness of the Indiana 'no call' law must be opposed. We, the people, choose not to be abused by incessant telemarketing. If I need to call my bank I can pick up the phone and call them myself. Do not pander to corporate money.